

South America serves up adventure.

Chile & Argentina Culinary Adventure

An exclusive tour for the Moose Jaw Wine Club

Bold as a Malbec, this tour serves up the brave new world of South American wine. Starting in Chile, you'll visit incredible wineries outside Santiago then cross the Andes into Mendoza, Argentina's main wine region and heartland of the Malbec grape. Winery tours and a cooking class in Mendoza are included, and a special visit to a Planeterra project that trains troubled youth in gourmet cooking. After all this, you're free to eat, drink and dance through Buenos Aires—the 'Paris of the Americas' ¡Salud!
